The Circuit Court.

The Court of General Sessions was con tinued, and consumed the remainder of last week. The first case tried after our account left off was that of the State vs. Andrew Lewis, Dock Williams, Numer Campbell, Vernon Mack, James Edwards and Norris Edwards, charged with riot and assault and battery with intent to kill. The prisoners were defended by Win. S. Brown, Esq. This was the case of the Townville riot, which occurred last summer, when a party of negroes tried to kill John Williams. Andrew Lewis, Dock Williams, Numer Campbell, Vernon Mack and Norris Edwards were found guilty of riot and assault with intent to kill, Norris Edwards being ecommended to the mercy of the Court and James Edwards being acquitted. The first four of those convicted were sentenced to confinement and labor in the penitentiary for one year, whilst Norris Edwards was to the effect that persons in clearing lands entenced to imprisonment in the county ail for one month

The next case called was that of the State against Toney Williams, Allen Skelton and Frank Smith, indicted for burglary, grand arceny and receiving stolen goods. As Allen Skelton and Frank Smith have not been arrested, on motion of the Solicitor the case was continued.

The next case tried was that of the State against William Martin, indicted for mali-cious trespass, and defended by Messrs, Kennedy, McGowan, Moore and Allen. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for the term of si- months.

The next case was that of the State and grand larceny. Messrs. Orr & Tribble defended the prisoner. The evidence which the State relied upon was wholly circumthere were peculiar indentations in the track made by one of the parties supposed to have assisted in the felony, and the control of the indentations in the track destructive to the effectiveness of our labor clement. We therefore control of the morals of our young men, and, in a great measure, destructive to the effectiveness of our labor clement. PRESENTMENT OF GRAND JURY.

February Term, 1879. To the Hon, T. B. Frazer, presiding Judge of the Eighth Judicial Circuit: We, the Grand Jury, beg leave to submit

he following as our presentment-1st. We have carefully examined the various county offices, Sheriff's, Clerk's, Probate Judge's, Treasurer's, Auditors and the band at Due West. The next thing we School Commissioner's, and find them neatly and correctly kept. We have examined the Jail and find the prisoners well cared for and made as comfortable as the nature of their condition permits. It is recommended to us by the Sheriff, and we have in custody-the same to be made under his instruction and his direction.

2nd. Through a committee of this body we have visited the Poor House and find therein thirty-five inmates, most of whom are invalids, unable to work and it is neces eary for the Steward, Robert Stevenson, to engage labor to cultivate the farm. We regret that the Steward has to purchase provisions on credit, and we think it to the interest of the County to provide some means to buy on the cash basis. It is further recommended that the County Commissioners erect a new barn, as the present one is in such a dilapidated condition that provender and forage cannot be preserved.

3rd. From information given us by persons from various sections of the County, we feel authorized in saying that the public roads are in a bad condition, and recognizing the great necessity of good roads, we ecommend that the proper authorities examine closely their condition and have such as are in need of work put in proper condi-

4th. We further present, that we have heard complaints from some portions of the County, particularly along the Saluda River. along streams roll logs, brush, &c., into the river to get them out of the way, thereby obstructing the natural flow of the water, by which the lands are injured, and the health of the community likely to be endangered. We do not, at the present term of Court, feel disposed to present any in-dictment for this, but simply call the attenion of the County generally, and of this community specially, to the Act of the General Assembly providing against this in a special Act relating to Anderson County; and also the fact that it is the subject of in dictment even in the absence of such act of the Legislature, and cannot be permitted.

5th. We have information which we deem rustworthy that throughout every township against Isaac Sloan, charged with burglary in the County illicit venders of spirituous liquors are in the constant habit of selling and distributing their poison, which, outside of its illegality, is ruinous to the morals ssisted in the felony, and that the shoe of attention of our respective Trial Justices to Isaac Sloan made a track precisely similar. this flagrant violation of the law, and request them to leave no legal means untouched whereby said violators of the law may be brought to punishment. We have been informed that even here, at the seat of to the above fact.

9th. We have received a communication signed "Citizen," in which William Watcarelessness, the prisoner was acquitted.

The last case in the Court of Sessions was finished on Friday afternoon. This was the Glenn and Wm. P. Brown, and we there-

7th. We recommend that our County Commissioners examine the Sloan's Ferry State's witness, whose house was entered. | tain Creek church, and if, in their judgfered no witness in defence, and was found vided, to have the same re-opened and guilty and sentenced to confinement and worked as soon as their convenience will permit and the interests of the county demand. In conclusion, we avail ourselves of the opportunity to extend our thanks to the presiding Judge and the Solicitor for their uniform courtesy and kindness to us as well as for their valuable assistance and instrucday. The Court on convening Monday tion in the proper discharge of our duties. W. G. WATSON, Foreman.
